December 12, 2018

Dear Santapogue Families:

Inspired by the hit movie, we are excited to celebrate the holiday season, as well as kick off winter recess with a "Polar Express Day" on Friday, December 21, 2018. The story is about a doubting boy who boards a magical train ride on Christmas Eve which takes him to the North Pole where he receives a special gift. The story is heart-warming and reminds us all to believe in the magic of family and the Holiday Season.

On that morning, "Conductors" will be giving each student a "golden ticket" as they enter the building. Each classroom will then be escorted down to the auditoria where I will read the story of "Polar Express".

Students will view the movie with their grade in classrooms while enjoying homemade cookies and hot chocolate. Please speak to your classroom teacher if you have any allergies and/or concerns.

We encourage your children to wear pajamas and sneakers to school on Friday, December 21st.

If you prefer your child to not participate, please contact your child's classroom teacher or myself. Students will be provided an alternate location where they can participate in other fun celebratory educational activities.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Carere
Principal
